

4th Declension

masculine and feminine forms
	singular	plural
nom	-us	-ūs
gen	-ūs	-uum
dat	-ui	-ibus
acc	-um	-ūs
abl	-u	-ibus

Neuter
	singular	plural
nom	-u	-ua
gen	-ūs	-uum
dat	-u	-ibus
acc	-u	-ua
abl	-u	-ibus

nouns are masculine unless otherwise noted

adventus, -ūs	arrival
casus, -ūs	occasion, opportunity, accident, occurrence, misfortune, destruction, downfall cursu	by running
domus, -ūs (f)	house, home *
exercitus, -ūs	army
exitus, -ūs	departure
fluctus, -ūs	wave
impetus, -ūs	an attack
manus, -ūs (f)	hand, band of men occasus, -ūs	destruction, downfall, setting milia passuum	mile (thousands of paces)
portus, -ūs	port
senatus, -ūs	senate

NEUTER NOUN

cornu, -us horn, wing of an army domus has an irregular declension

singular	plural
domus	domūs
domūs	domuum
domui	domibus
domum	domos
domo	domibus	domi – locative – at home

Also the word domus does not need a preposition to express “to” – just use the acc. case. For the idea of “from” just use the ablative case.