

Adjective House Booklet.

Objectives: To use adjectives correctly to describe rooms in a house

To use the correct endings on the nouns when forming the sentences

To better familiarize yourself with the Latin for the rooms in a house and the endings of nouns.

You will be describing a house as if it were your house. Describe the house in terms of a Roman house.

On the front page, introduce yourself and make one statement about the house in which you live.

On each page (do NOT use the back of pages), write at least two statements about that part of your house in Latin.

You should have a page for the following: vestibulum, atrium, tablinum, triclinium, culina, latrina, cubiculum

Use a variety of vocabulary and try to change the structure of the sentences.

Illustrate each page. You may use modern pictures or pictures from ancient Roman settings.

Here are some suggestions. This is NOT a complete set. Be sure to include all the rooms listed

Except for the 1st line, the blanks are to be filled in with adjectives.

1. Hello, my name is _____
2. I live in a _____ house with my family.
3. My family loves our _____ house
4. In our house there are _____ bedrooms.
