

Subject –does something or is described
Possessive – owns something
Indirect Object – something is done to or for Direct Object – is verbed
Prepositional Phrase – shows a position or relationship

1. We saw Marilyn's picture in the paper.

2. My dad brings me presents.

3. College offers students opportunities.

4. The prisoner's wife will bring him cigarettes.

5. The politicians in the election offer the people promises.

6. The doctor gave me medicine in a bottle.

7. In the mountains a bear approached the cabin's door.

8. In the flood a stranger provided help.

9. The spy stood in the shadows near the door.

10. The letter broke the soldier's heart.

Grammar practice We saw...