

Copy the following declension.

iter	itineris	itineri	iter	itinere
itineris	itineri	iter	itinere
itineri	iter	itinere
iter	itinere
itinere

What does this word mean?

What declension is this word from?

Is it masculine, feminine or neuter?

How can you tell if it is masculine, feminine or neuter just by looking at this chart?

Copy the following declension.

aestas	aestatis	aestati	aestatem	aestate
aestatis	aestati	aestatem	aestate
aestati	aestatem	aestate
aestatem	aestate
aestate

What does this word mean?

What declension is this word from?

Is it masculine, feminine or neuter?

Can you tell if it is masculine, feminine or neuter just by looking at this chart?

Copy the following declension.

tempus	temporis	tempori	tempus	tempore
temporis	tempori	tempus	tempore
tempori	tempus	tempore
tempus	tempore
tempore

What does this word mean?

What declension is this word from?

Is it masculine, feminine or neuter?

How can you tell if it is masculine, feminine or neuter just by looking at this chart?

Translate these phrases (Hint: These are reviewing accusative and ablative of time. See below)

1. Longum tempus
2. Breve tempus
3. Brevi tempore
4. Longo tempore
5. Aestate
6. Aestatem

Accusative of time – translate using “for”

Ablative of time – translate using “in, on, at, during, within”